

Allamakee County Team June 5, 2010

Allamakee County took a farm tour on Saturday, June 5, 2010 to Village Creek Farm & Rocky Top Farm near Lansing, IA. Our first stop was to Village Creek Farm owned by Bob Raymond. He has a hoop house and grows salad greens, garlic, tomatoes, and many other vegetables. It was very interesting to hear how much longer the growing season can be extended with a hoop house. Our second stop was at Rocky Top Farm owned by Al & Teresa Steiber. They raise laying hens of many different varieties, butcher chickens, & have laying quails. They are also involved in exotic bird rescue and cat rescue. It was especially neat to see and touch most of the birds on their property and learn more about the different types of eggs.

Twenty-six people attended: Byron & Eileen Meyer, Jerry & Pat Korzendorfer, Diane Whitney with her daughter & grand daughter, Ann Mansfield & her Mother, Catherine Baker, Teresa, Abby, & Derrick Wiemerslage, Angela Gibbs, Lori Egan & Husband, Jay Cutler, Bernice Fischels, Gary Buresh, Jane Rausch, Deena Serra & Cole Serra, Dani & Blythe Bucknell, Herb & Patsy Larkin.

Submitted by Danielle Bucknell.